

MAKE VOTES COUNT CAFÉ

Table Chat One

15 MINUTES

At your table, introduce yourself and say one word about how you feel about voting in this federal election, and then discuss:

- 1) What makes healthy communities?
- 2) Why does this federal election matter?

As a group,

- brainstorm ideas on the back of sticky notes
- identify one idea per question that you'd like to present to the whole group
- write your idea on the front side of sticky notes (one idea per sticky note).

Have someone on behalf of your group present your ideas.
